

QIG holds a corporate Suhoor for its staff and customers

The Qatari Investors Group (QIG) hosted a corporate Suhoor event to celebrate the holy month of Ramadan recently. The event was attended by a large number of staff members and customers and took place at the St. Regis. Ramadan celebration has become a regular feature on the company's calendar as it serves as an excellent platform to strengthen relations between its employees and customers. (Contd.)

